NOTE OF EXPLANATION: Hillsdale is a faith based institution with a long standing tradition among its supporting church constituents and alumni of sending students for at least their first year in college to Hillsdale. After completing basic general education courses and receiving Christian training many students transfer to another institution to complete their education, the most common being The University of Oklahoma in neighboring Norman, Oklahoma.

Hillsdale has a limited number of majors leading to a bachelor's degree; a student may be required to transfer to another institution in order to complete his or her chosen major.

* The completion and graduation rates for certificates, associate degrees, and bachelor degrees are measured at 150% of the expected time for completion (bachelor degree rate is 6 years from the first enrollment).

NOTE: This report is compiled from the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (annual IPEDS Data Feedback Reports) published by the National Center for Educational Statistics.
